MISCELLANEOUS READING. AN UNGALLANT BISHOP.

At the meeting of the Synod at Aberdeen on Thursday, the Bishop said: Before proceeding, I have to remark, that I see persons here who have not my authority for being thorized by the State of Georgia! The present. I positively refused to give my business. (There were some balf dezen ladies in the front seat of the south gallery) If the ladies have any delicacy they will not remain without premission from me, and I hope any gentlemen, who may have influence with them will exert their influence to get them to accede to my request. (After a pause, and no stir among the ladies, the Bishop continued.) If the ladies are determined, I am equally determined, and I will Class 33, draws Saturday, September 18, 1858, adjourn the Synod to another place. (A pause of some minutes ensued, and yet no sign of the ladies retiring.) The Bishop then said: The Synod is adjourned till the isdies retire-for half an hour. The Bishop then retired, but the ladies in the gallery sat still for several minutes. Ultimately, and after a good deal of consultative whispering, and having had the counsels of a reverend brother, who ascended the gallery, they re-
